“FOURTH.

A. It is resolved, approved and acknowledged that the shareholders will have a term of up to 15 (fifteen) calendar days, as from the calendar day immediately following the date on which the Preemptive Notice is published in a newspaper of major circulation of the Company's domicile, the electronic system established by the Ministry of Economy, which will also be published via EMISNET, so that such shareholders may exercise, if applicable, the Preemptive Right granted to them by law and the Company's bylaws, to subscribe, in proportion to the number of shares owned by them, the shares issued as a result of the Capital Increase.

The Preemptive Right may be exercised by delivering instructions to the intermediary through which each shareholder holds its shareholding position. Likewise, the shareholders shall notify the exercise of their Preemptive Rights to the Company, by e-mail to the following addresses psmith@hotelescity.com, msaccucci@hotelescity.com and hvazquez@hotelescity.com; in the understanding that the lack of delivery of such notice shall not affect the validity of the exercise of the Preemptive Right by any shareholder.

B. It is noted and resolved that the shareholders exercising the Preemptive Right shall be obligated to pay in cash the portion corresponding to the capital increase they have subscribed no later than the date on which the Preemptive Period ends.

C. Pursuant to Clause Eleventh of the Company's bylaws, it is resolved, approved, and authorized that:

I. The lack of exercise, waiver or partial exercise of the Preemptive Right to subscribe the Capital Increase by one or more of the shareholders, either in the act of this Meeting or during the Preemptive Period, will result in the other shareholders who so decide being able to subscribe and pay for the Capital Increase for an amount greater than what corresponds to them based on their current participation in the capital stock of the Company.

II. Shareholders who wish to exercise the Additional Preemptive Right may do so at any time during the Preemptive Period by delivering a written notice to the Company in which the shareholder or shareholders in question state their desire to subscribe and pay for the Capital Increase in excess of their participation in the capital stock, indicating the total amount for which such shareholder would subscribe and pay for the Capital Increase in excess of their participation in the capital stock and the corresponding total number of Remaining Shares; the foregoing, in the understanding that (a) the exercise of the Additional Preemptive Right will be conditioned to the fact that, once the Preemptive Period has concluded, (y) there are effectively Remaining Shares available for subscription and payment, and (z) the corresponding shareholder has obtained all of the authorizations, that are required in terms of the Company's bylaws and the applicable law, for such subscription (b) any Additional Preemptive Notice must be delivered during the Preemptive Period, therefore no Additional Preemptive Notice will be accepted after the Preemptive Period ends and (c) to the extent that any Additional Preemptive Notice is delivered after the date on which the Preemptive Period ends, the Company shall have no obligation to consider the additional amount offered by the shareholder(s) in question.

III. The shareholders that as a result of the exercise of the Additional Preemptive Right, will require prior approval of the Company's Board of Directors, in terms of the Company's bylaws, in observation of what is resolved in the following section D, previous to such subscription, will require the approval from the Board of Directors for completing the acquisition in terms of clause twelfth of the Company's By-laws. The Board of Directors will have the faculty to assign such shares.

IV. Once the Preemptive Period has ended and, if applicable, the number of Remaining Shares that may be subscribed and paid for by the shareholders who have exercised the Additional Preemptive Right is determined, the Company will (a) allocate the Remaining Shares to such shareholders based on the validly Additional Preemptive Notices it has received to that effect, and (b) as soon as practicable after the end of the Preemptive Period, notify the relevant shareholder(s) of the final amount that may be subscribed and paid for in excess of their participation in the capital stock, the number of Remaining Shares based on such amount, and the form upon which such shareholders must subscribe and pay for the Remaining Shares in excess of their participation in the capital stock.

V. Notices of exercise of the Additional Preemptive Right must be delivered to the Company at any time during the Preemptive Period by e-mail to the following addresses psmith@hotelescity.com, msaccucci@hotelescity.com and hvazquez@hotelescity.com.

D. It is hereby noted that, with respect to the requirements set forth in clause twelfth of the Company's bylaws regarding the obligation to launch a mandatory tender offer when an acquisition of more than 20% of the capital stock of the Company is made, such provision is contrary to article 98 of the Mexican Securities Market Law (Ley de Mercado de Valores) that sets forth a 30% threshold, therefore:

I. It is hereby approved, acknowledged and authorized, in terms of the second to last paragraph of clause twelfth of the Company's bylaws that for purposes of the subscription and payment of the Capital Increase to be approved in terms of this Meeting, the 20% threshold set forth in the bylaws for launching a mandatory tender offer will not be considered and instead the 30% threshold set forth in the Securities Market Law (Ley de Mercado de Valores) will apply.

II. It is hereby approved and authorized to release the members of the Board of Directors of HCE from any and all liabilities that may arise for any decision or determination adopted regarding the non-compliance of the threshold set forth in the bylaws regarding launching mandatory tender offers since such threshold is not consistent with the applicable law. Therefore, in terms of the second to last paragraph of clause twelfth of the Company's bylaws such provision is not mandatory.

E. The Board of Directors of HCE is hereby approved and authorized, upon expiration of the Preemptive Period and upon exercise of the Additional Preemptive Right, if any Remaining Shares remain to be subscribed and paid for, at its discretion, (1) to offer, in whole or in part, the Remaining Shares, for subscription and payment by any third party, as well as to determine the manner and terms for the subscription and payment of the Remaining Shares by such third parties, with the sole limitation that the subscription price may not be less than the Subscription Price approved by this Meeting and, provided further that such Remaining Shares shall not be subject to a public offering nor be offered for payment and subscription by the intervention of any placement intermediary, (2) to maintain part or all of the Remaining Shares in the treasury of the Company, and (3) to approve the cancellation of part or all of the Remaining Shares and the consequent decrease of the authorized capital stock of the Company, without the need for any additional resolution of the HCE Shareholders' Meeting, and (4) in general, for the Board of Directors of the Company to resolve any matter related to the Additional Preemptive Right and the Remaining Shares.

For purposes of the foregoing, it is hereby approved and authorized (a) to delegate to the Board of Directors of HCE the broadest powers at law in connection with any matter related to the Remaining Shares, and (b) that, once the Preemptive Period has elapsed and the Additional Preemptive Right has been exercised, if any, any person may subscribe and pay for part or all of the Remaining Shares based on the determinations made by the Board of Directors for such purpose.

F. It is noted that persons intending to subscribe shares, whether in exercise of the Preemptive Right, the Additional Preemptive Right or based on determinations of the Board of Directors, must carry out any of the following acts (the subscription and payment schemes may be modified as necessary or convenient to successfully implement the Capital Increase):

III. The persons who decide to subscribe the shares issued in connection with the Capital Increase as a result of a determination of the Board of Directors of the Company shall notify the Company in writing by e-mail to the following addresses psmith@hotelescity.com, msaccucci@hotelescity.com and hvazquez@hotelescity.com.
